

The 2017-18 Budget and NABARD – Financial Inclusion

The budget has proposed augmentation of the Financial Inclusion Fund with NABARD which has played a sterling role in introducing long overdue financial technology into rural banking eco-system. It has also allowed launch of hundreds of financial literacy campaigns across the length and breadth of rural India through like minded stakeholders

