

“Climate Resilience Building in Rural Areas through Crop Residue Management”

The project aims to promote a basket of technological interventions for management of crop residue along with existing machineries, generate awareness, provide training & capacity building for employment generation, enhance farmers' income, strengthen soil organic carbon , fertility of soil and control health hazards. The project would be implemented at Regional Scale involving Punjab, Haryana, Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan. The project would be executed by Agriculture Departments of the Project States in collaboration with their other line departments with an estimated NAFCC grant assistance of Rs. 100 Crore.