

“MukhyaMantri Jal Swavlamban Abhiyaan for Climate Change Adaptation and Water Harvesting in Arthuna, Anandpuri and Sajjangarh blocks of District Banswara”

The project aims to promote water security by undertaking construction of approximately 1 lakh water conservation/ water harvesting structures, synchronization of the efforts of the different State Govt. Departments and Secure irrigation in the 40 % rain fed areas of the project region. The project is being implemented in the Arthuna, Anandpuri and Sajjangarh blocks of Banswara District of Rajasthan. The project is expected to benefit 70 project villages in the Banswara District. The project is executed by Dept. of Watershed Development & Soil Conservation, Government of Rajasthan with a NAFCC grant assistance of Rs. 24.97 Crore.

Click here to download Project Document