Clarifications to queries received by NABARD individually/in pre-bid meeting held on 01 October 2021

Date of Issue: 04 October 2021

1	Page No. 60, Item G 21 (Replacing CI Waste Pipe), Page No. 65, Item G 21 (Replacing CI Waste Pipe) and Page No. 69, Item G 21 (Replacing CI Waste Pipe)	Count of CI Waste Pipes to be replaced.	The BoQ line item already states that the aspiring bidder has to replace " all " pipes in each block. "All" in spirit of the contracted works shall mean any and all the CI waste pipes including the necessary fittings and fixtures in all the blocks A, B, C and D. All the bidders are advised to visit the site before quoting the prices.
2	Page No. 8 Schedule of Events – Earnest Money Deposit (EMD)	As per EMD clause under SCHEDULE OF EVENTS given on page no. 8 of tender, "the bidder wants to claim exemption under MSME Procurement Policy of Govt. of India, the bidder has to submit documentary proof of registration as MSME with Central Procurement Organizations or NABARD itself, as per this clause exemption is given for medium enterprises also?"	Yes. If the bidder wants to claim exemption under MSME Procurement Policy of Govt. of India, the bidder has to submit documentary proof of registration as MSME with Central Procurement Organizations or NABARD itself. Bidders can write 'Exempted' wherever necessary and upload a copy of the proof. Bidders should note that in case the said proof of exemption is not uploaded in the application portal, NABARD reserves the right to reject the application of such bidders. The bid can be made invalid anytime during the process, if the document uploaded is not appropriate.
