8.26.3 The rights of NABSanrakshan pursuant to this Clause 8.26.3 shall be in addition to and not exclusive of, and shall be without prejudice to, any other rights and remedies available to NABSanrakshan at equity or law including the right to seek specific performance, rescission, restitution or other injunctive relief, none of which rights or remedies shall be affected or diminished thereby.

8.26.4 Indemnification Procedure for Third-Party Claims

In the event that NABSanrakshan receives notice of the assertion of any claim or the commencement of any action by a third-party in respect of which indemnity may be sought under the provisions of this Clause 8.26.4 (a "Third-Party Claim"), NABSanrakshan shall notify Service Provider in writing of such Third-Party Claim (such notice, a "Notice of Claim") within 10 (ten Business Days of receipt of notice thereof; provided that the failure or delay in notifying the Service Provider of such Third- Party Claim will not relieve the Service Provider of any liability it may have towards NABSanrakshan.

The Service Provider shall assume the defence or prosecution of such Third-Party Claim and any litigation resulting therefrom with counsel acceptable to NABSanrakshan and at the sole cost and expense of the Service Provider (a "Third-Party Defence"). The Service Provider shall undertake the investigation, defence, and settlement thereof in agreement with NABSanrakshan. The Service Provider will not consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to the Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of NABSanrakshan. NABSanrakshan may retain separate co-counsel at the expense of the Service Provider. Upon assumption of the defence of a Third-Party Claim, the Service Provider shall be conclusively deemed to have acknowledged that the Third-Party Claim is within the scope of its indemnity obligation under this Contract. The Service Provider shall conduct the Third-Party defence actively and diligently and provide copies of all correspondence and related documentation in connection with the Third-Party defence to NABSanrakshan to the extent it does not adversely affect attorney-client privilege. The Service Provider will not take any action, or omit to take any action, without the consent of NABSanrakshan, that would cause (a) any contracts, correspondence or other documents or confidential information of NABSanrakshan or its affiliates to be disclosed to a third-party or (b) any director, officer, employee or agent of NABSanrakshan to take any action related to the Third-Party Claim which could reasonably be expected to interfere with or contravene such person's duties to NABSanrakshan or its affiliates. NABSanrakshan will provide reasonable cooperation in the Third-Party defence.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Service Provider shall have no obligations with respect to any infringement claims to the extent that the infringement claim arises or results from: (i) Service Provider's compliance with NABSanrakshan's specific technical designs or instructions (except where Service Provider knew or should have known that such compliance was likely to result in an infringement claim and NABSanrakshan did not inform Service Provider of the same); (ii) inclusion in a deliverable of any content or other materials provided by NABSanrakshan and the infringement relates to or arises from such NABSanrakshan materials or provided material; (iii) modification of a deliverable after delivery by Service Provider to NABSanrakshan if such modification was not made by or on behalf of Service Provider; (iv) operation or use of some or all of the deliverable in combination with products, information, specification, instructions, data, materials not provided by Service Provider; or (v) use of the deliverables for any purposes for which the same have not been designed or developed or other than in accordance with any applicable specifications or documentation provided under the applicable statement of work by Service Provider; or (v) use of a superseded release of some or all of the deliverables or NABSanrakshan's failure to use any modification of the deliverable furnished under this Agreement including, but not limited to, corrections, fixes, or enhancements made available by Service Provider.

If counsel for NABSanrakshan reasonably determines that there are legal defences available to NABSanrakshan different from or in addition to those available to the Service Provider or an actual conflict of interest exists between NABSanrakshan and the Service Provider in the defence of any Third-Party Claim, then counsel for NABSanrakshan shall be entitled, if NABSanrakshan so elects, to conduct the defence to the extent reasonably determined by such counsel to protect the interests of NABSanrakshan, at the expense of the Service Provider.

If the Service Provider does not assume the Third-Party defence, NABSanrakshan shall have the right to assume the Third-Party defence with counsel of its choice at the expense of the Service Provider; provided, that NABSanrakshan shall control the investigation, defence, and settlement thereof. NABSanrakshan shall have the right to agree to the entry of any judgment or enter any settlement with respect to the Third-Party Claim.

The Service Provider will not be entitled to assume the Third-Party defence if: (i) the Third-Party Claim seeks, in addition to or in lieu of monetary damages, any injunctive or other equitable relief, other than injunctions seeking to terminate or limit the Services; (ii) the Third-Party Claim relates to or arises in connection with any criminal action, indictment or allegation; (iii) NABSanrakshan reasonably believes an adverse determination with respect to the Third-Party Claim would be detrimental to or injure NABSanrakshan's reputation or business prospects; (iv) Service Provider has failed or is failing to vigorously prosecute or defend such Third-Party Claim (as reasonably determined by NABSanrakshan); or (vi) the Service Provider fails to provide reasonable assurance to NABSanrakshan of its financial capacity to prosecute the Third-Party Defense. In such instance, NABSanrakshan shall have the right to assume the Third-Party Defense with counsel of its choice at the expense of the Service Provider; and NABSanrakshan shall control the investigation, defence, and settlement thereof. NABSanrakshan shall have the right to agree to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to the Third-Party Claim.

It is further clarified that NABSanrakshan would require the detailed indemnity clause set out in Clauses 8.26.1-8.26.4 contract as it specifically sets out the independent agreement between the parties on the rights that may be availed by NABSanrakshan against the Service Provider in the instance of breach of any obligations of the Service Provider or any claims arising against NABSanrakshan due to certain acts / omissions of the Service Provider. Indemnity is in addition to and separate from other contractual remedies available to the parties.

8.27 Force majeure

8.27.1 If the performance as specified in this Contract is prevented, restricted, delayed or interfered with for any cause beyond the control of the Parties, including by reason of fire, explosion, cyclone, floods, war, hostilities, revolution, riots, acts of public enemies, espionage, blockage or embargo, pandemic, epidemic, lockdowns, acts of God, network failure or failure of electronic transmission, default or failure of/by any third party, any law, order, proclamation, ordinance, demand or requirements of any Government or authority or representative of any such Government including restrictive trade practices or regulations, strikes, lockouts, shutdowns or labour disputes which are not instigated for the purpose of avoiding obligations herein, or any other circumstances beyond the control of the Party affected shall not be considered a force majeure event under this Contract (“Force Majeure Event”), then notwithstanding anything here before contained, the Party affected shall not be considered to be in default of performance of obligations under the terms of this Contract or for indemnification provided for hereunder to the extent such performance relates to prevention, restriction, delay or interference. and provided the Party so affected uses its best efforts to remove such cause of non-performance and when removed the Party shall continue performance with utmost dispatch.

8.27.2 If a Force Majeure Event arises, the Service Provider shall promptly notify NABSanrakshan in writing of such condition, the cause thereof and the change that is necessitated due to the conditions. Until and unless otherwise directed by NABSanrakshan in writing, the Service Provider shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonably practical and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure Event. If NABSanrakshan determines it is commercially or technically infeasible to cure the Force Majeure Event and so notifies the Service Provider, then NABSanrakshan may terminate the Contract effective immediately upon delivery of notice of termination to the Service Provider.

8.27.3 As there is dependency of NABSanrakshan solely on the Service Provider for the performance of services, if NABSanrakshan determines that it is not commercially or technically feasible for the Service Provider to provide the services due to a force majeure event, it should be entitled to terminate the agreement immediately. Separately the clause also provides that the Service Provider would not be held to be in default of its obligations or liable to provide indemnity for any failure to perform due to a force majeure event which should give the Service Provider additional comfort.

8.27.4 The Force Majeure clause contemplates that both parties may be affected by a Force Majeure Event and to that extent, the force majeure clause is mutual. Only the right of termination due to the occurrence of a force majeure event is restricted to NABSanrakshan owing to the fact that NABSanrakshan is the recipient of the service. Given that force majeure events are not foreseeable; it is difficult to contemplate a specific timeline within which termination rights shall be made available to the Parties. However, it is clarified that to the extent the force majeure event affects the Service Provider, the Service Provider shall not be liable for delays caused due to such force majeure event.

8.28 Resolution of Disputes

8.28.1 All disputes and differences of any kind whatsoever, arising out of or in connection with this Contract or in the discharge of any obligation arising under this Contract (Whether during the course of execution of the order or after completion and whether before or after termination, abandonment or breach of the Contract) shall be first resolved amicably by Parties. It is hereby agreed that the arbitrators shall not have powers to order any interim measures whatsoever during the course of arbitration.

8.28.5 Notwithstanding anything in the contrary set forth in this RFP, each Party shall be entitled to seek urgent interim relief in any court of competent jurisdiction, including pre-arbitral attachments, temporary restraining orders, or temporary injunctions, as may be necessary to preserve the rights of such Party. The application by either Party to a judicial authority for such measures shall not be deemed to be an infringement or a waiver of the covenant of the Parties to submit disputes to arbitration under this Contract and shall not affect the relevant powers reserved to the arbitrators pursuant to this Clause 8.28.

8.28.6 All disputes arising out of or in any way connected with this Contract shall be deemed to have arisen at Mumbai only and Courts in Mumbai only shall have jurisdiction to determine the same.

8.28.7 Any notice given by one Party to the other pursuant to the Contract shall be sent to the other Party in writing, by hand, registered post or email to the other Party's specified address. ## Appendix A- Background about NABSarakshan

A.1 Basics of Credit Guarantee

Credit Guarantees is an insurance against credit/loan default. Credit guarantee mechanisms, around the world, involve transactions between three main constituent elements— the Borrower, the Guarantor and the Lender. An applicant who has been able to secure guaranteed credit facility is known as the Borrower. A Guarantor guarantees to pay a percentage of the borrower's debt if he or she should default on a loan obligation. In order to provide guarantee coverage, the Guarantor needs to have a credit guarantee corpus fund. The lender is, mostly, a bank or financial institution which extends credit facility to a borrower, based on the strength of the guarantee with the expectation that the funds will be repaid according to stipulated conditions.

Guarantees can be issued either under Direct Models (Borrower approaches the Guarantor directly) or under Indirect Models (Lender approaches the Guarantor). NABSarakshan has adopted Indirect model for issue of Credit Guarantees. In an indirect guarantee structure, Eligible Lending Institutions (ELIs) are on-boarded with pre specified norms. The Guarantor has no direct link with the Borrower.

Credit Guarantee Delivery Mechanisms differ across Credit Guarantee Products and Credit Guarantee Management Companies. Under Centralized Credit Guarantee Delivery Mechanism, a designated Nodal office of the Lender (Head Office/ Central Office) is solely authorized to be part of the delivery mechanism. All correspondence/data / funds related to credit guarantees flow from the Nodal office of the Lender to Guarantor/Guarantee Management Company and vice versa. Under Decentralized Credit Guarantee Delivery Mechanisms, Guarantor/Guarantee Management Company deals with more than one Nodal office of the Lender (say Regional/offices Zonal/Branch offices) .

Credit guarantees are the “Access to Finance” mechanisms provided as a risk sharing instrument for lenders and are aimed to improve flow of credit in borrower segments which are normally perceived to be risky by lenders. The Credit Guarantee mechanism provides the much needed fillip to the growth and development of the sector.

A.2 About NABSanrakshan

Agriculture and allied industry being a priority for the economy in creating new avenues for development, NABSanrakshan has been set up by NABARD to carry out credit guarantee and related activities towards sustainable and equitable agriculture and rural development.

NABSanrakshan is a specialized guarantee management organization for dispensing multiple credit guarantee programmes under a single architecture. The main objective of the Company is to carry out trusteeship functions in general and operate the credit guarantee funds for agriculture and rural development and other related sectors established or to be established for that purpose.

At a broad architecture level, multiple guarantee programmes are envisaged to be managed by NABSanrakshan as a Trustee. Such programmes shall be housed under an SPV structure (say, Trust). Each Trust can have one scheme or multiple schemes. Each scheme shall typically have a dedicated corpus fund attributed to it. Alternatively, a Trust may have multiple funds under it, as also, each Fund may have multiple schemes under it.

The relation between Trustee Company , Trusts , Funds and Schemes is illustrated below:

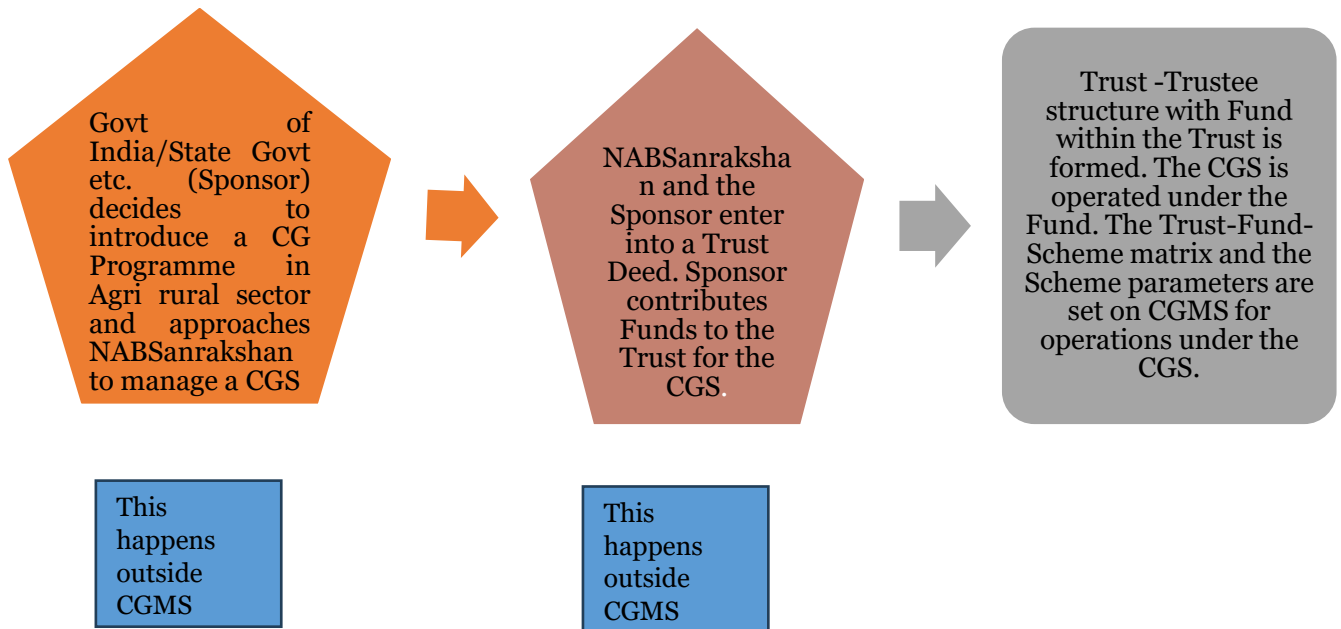

At present NABSanrakshan is managing two Credit Guarantee Programmes/Schemes - ‘Credit Guarantee Scheme for Animal Husbandry and Dairying (CGSAHD)’ under Credit Guarantee Fund Trust for Animal Husbandry & Dairying (CGFTAHD) and ‘Credit Guarantee Scheme for FPO Financing (CGSFPO)’ under Credit Guarantee Fund Trust for FPO (CGFTFPO). Another Scheme namely ‘Credit Guarantee Scheme for FIDF loans (CGS-FIDF)’ is expected to become operational under CGFTAHD shortly. More such Programmes/Schemes under same or different Trusts are expected to be managed by NABSanrakshan in future.

Presently, all Credit Guarantee Schemes being managed by NABSanrakshan are under ‘Indirect Model’ and are being delivered under ‘Centralized Credit Guarantee Delivery Mechanism.’
